

ATTENTION: KENTUCKY NOW HAS ELECTRICAL LICENSE RECIPROCITY WITH OHIO AND VIRGINIA.

OHIO—If you have your Kentucky Master's and Contractor's license, then you may be eligible to obtain the Ohio Electrical Commercial Contractor's license through reciprocity. Holders of the Kentucky licenses must submit a criminal background check (or an affidavit under the penalty of perjury) stating they have not been convicted of a felony, along with the appropriate application and fee.

For more information, contact:

Ohio Construction Industry Licensing Board
6606 Tussing Road
Reynoldsburg, OH 43068
(614) 644-3493

Those who hold the Ohio Electrical Commercial Contractor's License may be eligible to obtain the Kentucky Contractor's and Master Electrician's license through reciprocity. Applicants must submit the appropriate reciprocity application, the required fee and a copy of their current Ohio license.

For more information, contact:

Office of Housing, Buildings and Construction
Electrical Licensing Section
101 Sea Hero Road, Suite 100
Frankfort, KY 40601
(502) 573-0365

VIRGINIA—If you have your active Kentucky Master's or Electrician's license (not obtained through reciprocity with another state), then you may be eligible to obtain the Virginia Master Electrical Tradesman or Journeyman Electrical Tradesman license. Applicants must pay the appropriate fee and meet all other administrative requirements from the Virginia Board of Contractors.

For more information, contact:

Commonwealth of Virginia
Board for Contractors
3600 West Broad Street
Richmond, VA 23230-4917
(804) 367-8500

Those who hold the Virginia Master Electrical Tradesman or Journeyman Electrical Tradesman license (not obtained through reciprocity with another state) may be eligible to obtain a Kentucky Master Electrician's or Electrician's license by providing the appropriate fee, application and proof of Virginia license.

For more information, contact:

Office of Housing, Buildings and Construction
Electrical Licensing Section
101 Sea Hero Road, Suite 100
Frankfort, KY 40601
(502) 573-0365

NOTE: The Commonwealth of Kentucky, Office of Housing, Buildings and Construction, is in the process of pursuing reciprocity agreements with a number of other states. Ohio and Virginia are currently the only two states with agreements in place, but interested parties should check back periodically to see if other states have been added.